Tomasz A. Sobieraj has extensive experience in various areas of litigation. Tom's practice focuses on commercial, real estate, and corporate litigation, complex bankruptcy law and commercial real estate transactions. He regularly protects the rights of commercial property owners, including representing malls, shopping centers and office space owners, in connection with landlord/tenant issues, mechanic's liens, bankruptcy matters, and other issues. Tom also represents clients in contract disputes, breach of fiduciary duty claims, and other corporate disputes, professional negligence, and has experience in appellate matters. In addition, Tom counsels clients on various corporate and business matters. Tom is fluent in Polish.

Tom previously volunteered with the Chicago Volunteer Legal Services (CVLS) to provide pro bono legal services to the poor and working poor of Chicago in family law proceedings. Tom is also a former member of the Junior Board (formerly the Young Philanthropist Board) with Chicago Lighthouse, a non-profit organization serving the blind, visually impaired, disabled and Veteran communities.

Tom is a 2014 graduate of The John Marshall Law School, where he obtained his Juris Doctor. Prior to law school, Tom received his B.A. in Communication from the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign.

Tom is a member of the Chicago Bar Association and American Bar Association, and is actively involved with The Harold E. Eisenberg Foundation.
